If you are going to ride 100 miles, the best place to do it is at the Hotter'N Hell Hundred! Cadence Sports will once again provide Chip Timing in 2010 for the 29th Annual Hotter'N Hell Hundred on August 28, 2010. The Chip Timing Option is $5 for all participants who pre-register on BikeReg.com. Remember to pre-register for the Chip Timing to receive the discount, if you wait until packet pick up the cost is $7. Supplies are limited, so do not wait! You will be financially responsible for returning the chip at the end of your event. 100 milers will be provided splits, for the start, Hell's Gate and Finish. With that you will be able to compare of your time with others in your age group and distance. Timing is available for all routes except 10K. Along with Chip Timing, Cadence Sports introduces Text Messaging for all participants who purchase the Chip Timing option during pre registration. For an additional $1, have text messages sent to 3 United States based cellular phone numbers of your choice to let friends and family know that you completed one of the toughest rides in the country! This innovative new feature is available only to those participants who register online at BikeReg.com. If you have any questions about chip timing or text messaging, please visit:

www.USACycling.org Hell's Gate: If you plan to complete the 100 mile route, you need to be aware of Hell's Gate! Hell's Gate measures your training and commitment to the 100 mile route. Hell's Gate is located at the 62 mile mark. If you fail to pass Hell's gate by 12:30 pm you are directed to finish on an 80 mile route. Our medical staff stays in contact with weather conditions and might close the gate early if weather conditions are approaching a dangerous level. Riders will view Hell's Gate closure status at the start, and each rest stop prior to Hell's Gate.
